

The B. Leonard Holman Research Pathway

The purpose of this pathway is to allow certification in diagnostic radiology or radiation oncology for individuals interested in pursuing academic careers. It offers ABR-approved trainees the opportunity to more actively pursue research experience during their training.

Name: _____
Last First Middle

Address: _____
Street

_____ City State Zip Code

Telephone: _____ Email: _____

Title of your proposed research plan: _____

Is your proposed research plan dedicated to: Basic Science OR Clinical Studies

Please include the following items with your application:

Candidate:

- C.V.
- Outline of career goals (personal letter from candidate)
- Description of proposed research program (five pages maximum)
- Medical school dean's letter
- Official USMLE score reports (1-3)

Program Director/Chairman:

- Supporting letter indicating trainee's ability to achieve clinical competence in the abbreviated time
- Guaranteed availability of and support for research time

Research Mentor:

- C.V.
- Supporting letter indicating trainee's research potential
- Description of research facilities (two pages maximum)
 - Adequate space
 - Pertinent equipment
 - Funding for research
- Recent and current peer-reviewed research support
 - Grants (one page maximum)
 - Pertinent publications in peer-reviewed journals relevant to trainee (one page maximum)

Submit your complete application electronically to: information@theabr.org. Deadlines for application are March 15, July 15, and November 15. Please forward all necessary correspondence by the appropriate date. Upon your acceptance into the Holman Pathway, a formal notification will be sent to you.