

Bylaws of the American Board of Radiology
Approved December 15, 2025

Article I:
Name

The name and title by which this Corporation shall be known, as stated by the Certificate of Incorporation, is The American Board of Radiology (“ABR”).

RADIOLOGY is defined as that specialty of medicine which encompasses the diagnostic and therapeutic applications of radiant energy and radiation safety as included in each of the disciplines specified below. Each discipline has unique training standards and certification processes.

DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGY is that discipline of radiology that utilizes a variety of diagnostic and image-guided therapeutic techniques, including all aspects of radiological diagnosis, nuclear radiology, diagnostic ultrasound, magnetic resonance imaging, computed tomography, interventional procedures and the use of other forms of radiant energy.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY is that discipline of radiology that utilizes ionizing radiation to treat patients with cancer and occasionally patients with diseases other than cancer.

MEDICAL PHYSICS is that discipline of radiology that includes Therapeutic Medical Physics, Diagnostic Medical Physics and Nuclear Medical Physics.

INTERVENTIONAL RADIOLOGY is that discipline of radiology that diagnoses and treats diseases through expertise in diagnostic imaging and image-guided minimally invasive procedures. The evaluation and clinical management of patients with conditions amenable to these methods is integral to the discipline.

ARTICLE II
Objectives and Purposes

The objectives and purposes of this Corporation shall be as follows:

- (a) To serve patients and the public by providing and administering board certification for our diplomates;
- (b) To improve the quality and safety of our disciplines through our requirements for primary and subspecialty certification;

- (c) To create and conduct fair and valid assessments in our disciplines to evaluate accurately the qualifications of voluntary candidates for ABR certification;
- (d) To issue certificates to qualified and competent candidates in the disciplines of the ABR;
- (e) To promote lifelong and continuous learning, professional growth, quality and competence through our certification programs;
- (f) To promote professionalism within our disciplines;
- (g) To establish and promote open and transparent multi-directional avenues of communication with our diplomates, medical societies, governmental and non-governmental agencies, and the public;
- (h) To do and perform all things necessary or incidental to the foregoing objectives and purposes.

ARTICLE III
Members of the Corporation

The corporation has no members.

ARTICLE IV
Board of Governors, Officers, and Executive Director

Section 4.1. Board of Governors. The corporate powers, business and affairs of the ABR shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Governors.

Section 4.2. Members of the Board of Governors. The Board of Governors of this Corporation shall consist of individuals who shall be nominated and elected as hereinafter provided in this Article. Election of Governors shall give precedence to the needs of the Board of Governors and the qualifications of the nominee(s) while considering balance of perspectives by the professional components of the ABR. The Board of Governors shall include the Chair of the Board of Trustees defined in Section 5.5 and at least one Diplomate from each discipline of radiology defined in Article I. A minimum of 75% of the Governors shall be Diplomates of the ABR.

Section 4.3. Election of Governors. Nominees shall be solicited from the Board of Trustees and the Board of Governors, and may be solicited from any appropriate professional organization. Professional organizations shall provide such nominations in writing. An affirmative vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the entire Board of Governors shall be necessary for the election of any nominee to the Board of Governors.

Section 4.4. Number of Governors. The total number of voting members serving on the Board of Governors may be increased or decreased upon the approval of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the Board of Governors but shall consist of at least seven (7) and no more than eleven (11) members.

Section 4.5. Term, Term Limits. Each Governor shall serve for a term of two (2) years. A Governor may be re-elected upon affirmative vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the Board of Governors for up to two additional two (2) year terms. The total number of years an individual spends in ABR leadership service, combining time spent on the Board of Trustees and the Board of Governors, shall not exceed ten (10) years, unless the individual is elected to President Elect, President, Secretary-Treasurer, or Board of Trustees Chair in which case the maximum may not exceed 14 years. Extensions beyond the limits described above require a unanimous affirmative vote of the Board of Governors. An elected Governor's term of service officially begins at the conclusion of the fall annual meeting of the year of election, and ends at the conclusion of the fall annual meeting of the final year of service.

Section 4.6. Removal. A member of the Board of Governors can be removed upon vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the Board of Governors.

Section 4.7. Officers. The officers of this Corporation shall consist of a President, a President Elect, and a Secretary-Treasurer, each of whom shall be a member of the Board of Governors.

Section 4.8. Election of Officers. Each of the officers of this Corporation shall be elected for a term of two (2) years by a majority vote from among the Governors present and voting at an annual meeting. Said term shall begin on the morning of the last day of the fall annual meeting of the year of election, and end on the morning of the last day of the fall annual meeting of the final year of service as an officer. The President and President Elect shall each serve one term of two (2) years, but the Secretary-Treasurer may be re-elected with affirmative vote of the majority of the Board of Governors to serve one additional 2-year term. A vacancy in any office of this Corporation shall be filled for the unexpired term of such officer by election held by the Board of Governors at any regular or special meeting.

Section 4.9. Duties of the Officers.

- (a) President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Governors and serve as the Chair of the Board of Governors of the ABR. The President shall have the powers and duties usually appertaining to the office of President and such other powers and duties as may be assigned to the President by the Board of Governors from time to time. The President is an ex officio member with voting privileges of all standing committees of the Board of Governors defined in Section 8.2 except the President cannot be a member of both the Professionalism Committee and the Hearing Committee. The President shall submit to the annual meeting of the Board of Governors a report of the business, activities, and affairs of this Corporation.

- (b) President Elect. The President Elect succeeds the President and, in the event that the President cannot discharge their duties, shall act in the place and stead of the President, and in addition thereto, the President Elect shall perform such of the duties and affairs of this Corporation as may be assigned or delegated to such office by the President of this Corporation or by the Board of Governors.
- (c) Secretary-Treasurer. The Secretary-Treasurer, as Secretary, shall keep, or cause to be kept, the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Governors and shall keep all records of this Corporation, including data with respect to any examinations held, certificates issued, and other transactions of the Board of Governors. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be the custodian of this Corporation's seal. The Secretary-Treasurer, as Treasurer, shall keep, or cause to be kept, true and accurate accounts of all the financial transactions of this Corporation. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of the funds of this Corporation and of any securities which are the property of this Corporation. The Treasurer may be required to give bond in such sum and with such surety as may be determined and approved by the Board of Governors. The premium for such bond and the bonds of any other officers and employees shall be paid by this Corporation.
- (d) Executive Committee. The Officers are the members of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may act on behalf of the Board of Governors between regular Board of Governor meetings when it is impossible or impractical to call a special meeting or to wait until a regularly scheduled meeting. The Executive Committee shall report their deliberations and decisions to the Board of Governors as soon as practical but no later than the next regular meeting.

Section 4.10 Executive Director. The Board of Governors will select and employ an Executive Director who will serve as the Chief Executive Officer. The Executive Director will be responsible to the Board of Governors through the President for the effective conduct of the affairs of the ABR. The Executive Director will be responsible for the implementation of the policies of the Board of Governors relative to the Corporation's mission, goals and objectives. Within this framework, the Executive Director will plan, organize, coordinate and direct the staff, programs and activities of the Corporation. The Executive Director will serve as an ex-officio non-voting member of the Board of Governors and of each standing committee of the Board of Governors except the Executive Compensation and Hearing Committees. The Board of Governors and Audit Committee may, at any meeting, hold an executive session, during which the Executive Director may be excused. The compensation and term of employment of the executive Director will be determined by the Board of Governors. The Executive Director, in consultation with the Board of Governors, may appoint Associate Executive Directors to implement policies relative to the Corporation's mission in accordance with the objectives of the Strategic Plan.

ARTICLE V
Board of Trustees

Section 5.1. Board of Trustees. The Board of Governors shall create a Board of Trustees, a multidisciplinary body that advances the quality, relevance and effectiveness of the ABR's assessments for certification. The Board of Trustees makes recommendations to the Board of Governors regarding assessment structure including, but not limited to, exam format, content, assembly, delivery, scoring and feedback. The Board of Trustees will incorporate the goals of the exams in discussions that evaluate innovative methods to optimize assessment in support of both the mission and the profession. Additionally, the Board of Trustees will recruit and, in conjunction with staff, support volunteer experts in content development, item bank curation, item effectiveness research, standard setting, and exam administration. Trustees will solicit and integrate input from external stakeholders, including specialty societies, in the various disciplines.

Section 5.2. Members of the Board of Trustees. The membership of the Board of Trustees shall consist of Diplomates of the ABR who shall be nominated and selected as hereinafter provided. The Board of Trustees will include representation from each of the ABR disciplines, as defined in Article I. Individuals may be nominated by any member of the Board of Trustees. Self-nomination is allowed. The ABR may solicit on behalf of the Board of Trustees appropriate professional organizations to provide nominees. An affirmative vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the entire Board of Trustees shall be necessary for presenting a nominee to the Board of Governors. Appointments to the Board of Trustees must be approved by the Board of Governors. Such approval requires a simple majority.

Section 5.3. Terms, Term Limits. All members of the Board of Trustees shall serve for a term of three (3) years. A Trustee may be re-elected by a majority vote of both the Trustees of the affected discipline and the Board of Governors to serve one (1) additional term of three (3) years. In appropriate circumstances, a Trustee's service may be further extended by up to two (2) additional years if approved by a majority vote of both the Trustees of the affected discipline and the Board of Governors. An elected Trustee's term of service typically begins at the conclusion of the fall annual meeting of the year of election, and ends at the conclusion of the fall annual meeting of the final year of service.

Section 5.4. Removal. A member of the Board of Trustees can be removed upon vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the Board of Trustees or unanimous vote of the Board of Governors.

Section 5.5. Chair of the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees shall recommend nominees for Chair from among its members, to be elected for a term of two (2) years, during which the Chair shall also be a member of the Board of Governors. In addition to other duties, the Chair of the Board of Trustees shall help to provide or facilitate input from the Board of Trustees to the Board of Governors as appropriate. The Chair must be approved by an affirmative vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the Board of Governors. The Chair may be re-elected for one (1) additional term of two (2) years if approved by a majority vote of the Board of Trustees and the Board of Governors. Extensions beyond the limits described above require a unanimous affirmative vote of the Board of Governors.

Section 5.6. Vice-Chairs of Specific Disciplines. Each discipline, as defined in Article I, shall elect a Vice-Chair, who will chair meetings specific to that discipline.

ARTICLE VI

Conflicts of Interest, Confidentiality, and Acknowledgement

Section 6.1. Conflicts of Interest.

- (a) It is the policy of this Corporation that the legal duty of loyalty owed to this Corporation by an individual while serving in the capacity as a member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees requires the individual to act in the best interests of this Corporation. Consistent with the duty of loyalty, a person serving as a member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees does not serve or act as the “representative” of any other organization, and said member’s “constituency” as a member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees of this Corporation is solely this Corporation and is not any other organization or its members.
- (b) As an overriding condition of initial and continuing eligibility for election and service as member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees of this Corporation, a person shall not have, and shall avoid, any actual or potential conflict of interest that does or might be perceived to prevent or interfere with the person’s objective and unfettered performance of any of the duties as a member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees of this Corporation, including the person’s fulfillment of the duty of loyalty to this Corporation, and if a person believes that said person (or said person’s spouse or child) may have such a conflict of interest, the person shall promptly give written notice to this Corporation of all of the relevant facts and circumstances, shall be absent from all discussions regarding the subject matter of the actual or potential conflict of interest, and shall not vote on any issue regarding that subject matter.

- (c) The policies outlined in this Section 6.1 apply equally to Governors serving on the Board of Governors, as defined in Article IV, and to Trustees serving on the Board of Trustees, as defined in Article V.

Section 6.2. Confidentiality.

- (a) A member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees, during service as a Governor or Trustee of this Corporation and at all times thereafter, shall keep confidential the proprietary and confidential information of this Corporation including, but not limited to, proprietary and confidential information regarding examination development and content, Corporation financial information, or unpublished decisions made by the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees. A member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees shall not disclose any information to any person without the prior written consent of this Corporation, and shall not engage in any activities that may compromise the integrity of or be detrimental to this Corporation's activities. If a member of the Board of Governors or Board of Trustees develops or contributes to proprietary and confidential information of this Corporation, the member's efforts shall be deemed to have been undertaken exclusively on behalf of and for the sole benefit of this Corporation, as a work for hire by the member for this Corporation, and the member shall have no right or interest in any of such information.
- (b) The policies outlined in this Section 6.2 apply equally to Governors serving on the Board of Governors, as defined in Article IV, and to Trustees serving on the Board of Trustees, as defined in Article V.

Section 6.3. Acknowledgment. Each Governor and Trustee of this Corporation shall sign and deliver to this Corporation, when and as requested by the Board of Governors, an instrument that contains, at a minimum, the following information:

The undersigned acknowledges that the individual has read and understands the Bylaws of the ABR, including, without limitation, sections 6.1 and 6.2 of Article VI thereof, including Board policies pertinent to these sections, and agrees to be bound by them.

ARTICLE VII
Meetings

Section 7.1. Annual Meeting. There shall be an annual meeting of the Corporation held during each calendar year at a time and place to be determined by the President. Members of the Board of Governors may attend the Board of Trustees meetings as determined by the President.

Section 7.2. Regular Meetings. The Board of Governors and the Board of Trustees may each hold regular meetings at such place and time as shall be designated by the President and Board of Trustees Chair, respectively. Each shall transact such business as may properly be brought before its meetings.

Section 7.3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Governors may be called by the President or shall be called by the President on behalf of and upon written request made to the Executive Director or Secretary-Treasurer by at least three (3) members of the Board of Governors. Written notice of the time and place of special meetings and the subjects to be considered as established by the Board of Governors shall be sent to each member of the Board of Governors not less than ten (10) days prior to such meeting. The requirement for ten (10) day advance notice can be waived by unanimous agreement of the members of the Board of Governors.

Special Meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by the Chair of the Board of Trustees or shall be called by the Chair on behalf of and upon written request made to the Executive Director by at least five (5) members of the Board of Trustees. Written notice of the time and place of special meetings and the subjects to be considered as established by the Board of Trustees shall be sent to each member of the Board of Trustees not less than ten (10) days prior to such meeting.) The requirement for ten (10) day advance notice can be waived by unanimous agreement of the members of the Board of Trustees.

Section 7.4. Conduct of Meetings. Unless otherwise determined, all meetings of the Board of Governors, standing committees of the Board of Governors, and the Board of Trustees shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, current edition. Every meeting of the Board of Governors shall be presided over by the President or, in the absence of the President, by the President Elect, or, in the absence of the President and the President Elect, by a Governor chosen by a majority of the Governors present.

Section 7.5. Quorum. Except as otherwise herein provided, a majority of the voting members of the Board of Governors, Board of Trustees, or standing committees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 7.6. Participation in Meetings. A conference among Governors by means of communications through which the Governors may simultaneously hear each other during the conference is a meeting of the Board of Governors, if the same notice is given, or waived, of the conference as would be required for a meeting and if the number of Governors participating in the conference is a quorum, and participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting. A Governor may participate in a meeting of the Board of Governors by any means of communication through which the Governors, other Governors similarly participating, and all Governors physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting, and participation in a meeting by this means is personal presence at the meeting. These stipulations also apply to participation in meetings of the Board of Trustees.

Section 7.7. Consent of Governors without a Meeting of the Board of Governors. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Governors may be taken by the unanimous written consent of the Governors, setting forth the action or actions so taken and signed in one original or in one or more counterparts by all of the Governors. Electronic forms of communication may be used as written consent. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Governors and may be stated as such. These stipulations also apply to consent of Trustees without a meeting of the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE VIII
Standing Committees and Other Committees

Section 8.1. General. This Corporation shall have the standing committees described in the following sections of this article VIII and may have such other committees as are from time to time established by the Board of Governors. Each such committee shall have the authority, rights, powers, duties, and responsibilities from time to time determined by the Board of Governors. Any such committee may be disbanded at any time by action of the Board of Governors, in its sole discretion. Each such committee shall at all times be subject to the supervision, direction, and control of the Board of Governors. The number, qualifications, terms of office, method of selection, election, or appointment, removal and replacement of the members of each such committee, the time and place of their meetings, if any, and such other provisions with respect to them as are not inconsistent with the express provisions of these Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation shall be as specified from time to time by the Board of Governors of this Corporation, and the members of each committee shall be appointed for staggered terms whenever possible. Unless explicitly stated otherwise, committees of the Board of Governors may contain one or more members who are not Governors. Except as stated otherwise, all committees enumerated below shall make reports and recommendations to the Board of Governors.

Section 8.2. Standing Committees of the Board of Governors.

- (a) Budget and Finance Committee. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be assisted by a Budget and Finance Committee, which, in addition to the Secretary-Treasurer, shall consist of at least three Governors, appointed by the President. The Secretary-Treasurer will serve as the chair of the committee. The duties of the committee shall include detailed review and subsequent recommendations to the Board of Governors regarding approval of the annual budget; oversight of investments; recommending fees; review of personnel compensation; and related matters as assigned by the Board of Governors.

- (b) Bylaws Committee. The Bylaws Committee shall be responsible for reviewing the Bylaws and recommending appropriate modifications in them to the Board of Governors. The Committee shall consist of at least three (3) Governors, as well as a Chair, appointed by the President. The Chair of the Board of Trustees shall serve on the Bylaws Committee.
- (c) Audit Committee. The Board of Governors shall cause to be prepared annually an audit of this Corporation's books. The Audit Committee shall recommend the persons or firm to be engaged by the Corporation as its independent auditors; shall consult with the persons or firm so chosen with respect to the proposed scope of the auditor's work and the plan of audit; and shall perform all duties necessary to evaluate the Corporation's accounting practices and controls, as specified in the Policies and Procedures. The Committee shall make reports and recommendations to the Board of Governors with respect to the foregoing annually. The Committee shall consist of at least three (3) Governors, as well as a Chair, appointed by the President.
- (d) Professionalism Committee. The Professionalism Committee is responsible for developing and recommending to the Board of Governors standards of professionalism for the ABR; for reviewing and making recommendations regarding ABR processes for candidate and diplomate professional behaviors; and for surveying and setting standards for the assessment, improvement, and advancement of professionalism in radiology. The duties of the Professionalism Committee include, but are not limited to, adjudication of potential conflicts of interest among volunteer diplomates; and any other matters relating to the professional behavior of its candidates or diplomates. The Committee members will be appointed by the President and shall consist of at least three (3) Governors (one of whom will be appointed as Chair) and at least two (2) Trustees. Additional members may be appointed by the President as needed. The Committee shall report its findings to the Board of Governors.
- (e) Hearing Committee. The Hearing Committee shall be responsible for all hearings conducted in matters arising under Article X or required by the ABR Appeals Policy. The Committee's determination following such hearings shall be final. The Committee shall report its findings to the Board of Governors. The Hearing Committee shall be appointed by the President and shall consist of at least one (1) Trustee and up to three (3) Governors (one of whom is designated as Chair by the President), with representation from each discipline, whenever possible, and an Associate Executive Director from a discipline different from the discipline of the appellant, appointed by the Executive Director. Members of this committee shall not serve on the Professionalism Committee. If two (2) or more members of the Hearing Committee are unable to attend a hearing, the President shall appoint alternates, who may be Governors or Trustees.

- (f) Executive Compensation Committee. The Executive Compensation Committee will carry out the Board of Governors' responsibilities for designing, managing, and annually reviewing Executive compensation and the Executive Compensation Policy. This committee will consist of the President, President Elect, and at least one (1) additional member from the Board of Governors appointed by the President. The President will chair the committee. A quorum of this committee is defined as 100% of its voting members.
- (g) Research Oversight Committee. The Research Oversight Committee shall be responsible for (a) ensuring ABR compliance with federal regulations and policies regarding conduct of research and (b) addressing data privacy expectations of candidates and diplomates. The committee will recommend appropriate actions to the Board of Governors. The Committee shall consist of at least three (3) Governors, including a Chair appointed by the President; two (2) members of the BOT, the Executive Director as ex officio non-voting, and staff representation without vote.

Section 8.3. Standing Committees of the Board of Trustees.

- (a) General. All standing committees of the Board of Trustees shall report their recommendations to the full Board of Trustees.
- (b) Volunteerism Committee. The Volunteerism Committee is responsible for formulating plans for successful recruitment and retention of a robust and diverse group of volunteers at all levels. The Committee shall consist of the Chair of the Board of Trustees and at least two (2) additional Trustees, as well as a Chair, appointed by the Chair of the Board of Trustees. Additional members from the Board of Trustees or Board of Governors may be appointed by the Chair of the Board of Trustees as needed.
- (c) Assessment Experience Committee. The Assessment Experience Committee is responsible for making recommendations to support accessibility, fairness, and objectivity in the assessment and experience of candidates for initial certification and diplomates enrolled in Continuing Certification programs. The Committee members shall be appointed by the Chair of the Board of Trustees and shall consist of at least three (3) Trustees representing different disciplines, one of whom shall be appointed as Chair, at least two (2) Governors, and the Executive Director as an ex officio member without vote.

ARTICLE IX
Relationship to The American Board of Medical Specialties

This Corporation recognizes the need for cooperation with other medical specialty boards in creating, maintaining, and raising the standards of professional performance, in improving the delivery of medical care, and in cooperating in all other matters of mutual interest and concern. This Corporation acknowledges its Regular Membership in The American Board of Medical Specialties (“ABMS”) as an appropriate way of meeting these ends.

ARTICLE X
Disciplinary Action

Section 10.1. All certificates issued by the ABR are subject to the Bylaws of the Corporation, as amended from time to time, and to any policies and procedures adopted by the Corporation. The Corporation shall have the authority to impose disciplinary sanctions including but not limited to revoking any certificate issued by the Corporation or placing a Diplomate or Candidate on probation for a fixed or indefinite time or some combination of these, pursuant to policies and procedures established by the Corporation, for any of the following reasons:

- (a) The certificate was issued contrary to or in violation of any policy or procedure of the Corporation;
- (b) The person to whom the certificate was issued was not eligible to receive it;
- (c) Substantial misstatement or omission of a material fact to the Corporation in an application or in any other information submitted to the Corporation;
- (d) Any license of the person to practice is not, or ceases to be, a valid and unrestricted license to practice within the meaning set forth in the policies and procedures of the ABR. In the event that a Diplomate’s license to practice is suspended, revoked, or restricted in any state in which the Diplomate practices, holds a license or has held a license, the Diplomate’s board certification may be revoked or the Diplomate may be placed on probation;

- (e) Violation of rules and regulations relating to the Qualifying, Certifying, and Continuing Certification Examinations and applications to take the examinations;
- (f) Violation of requirements for certification or nonpayment of fees;
- (g) Presenting or distributing, or aiding, or assisting another person(s) to present or distribute, a forged document or other written instrument purporting to have been issued by or under the authority of the Corporation to evidence that a Candidate, Diplomate, or any other person(s) is currently or was previously certified by the ABR, when that is not the case;
- (h) Submitting false or misleading information about certification status or the status of a candidate for certification (such as results on qualifying examinations, board eligibility, etc.) to any third party, including but not limited to patients, potential patients, employers, potential employers, other health care practitioners, third party payors, boards of medicine, or other ABMS member boards;
- (i) Engaging in any conduct that materially disrupts any examination or that could reasonably be interpreted as threatening or abusive toward any examinee, proctor, or staff;
- (j) Conviction of a felony, related or not related to the practice of medicine, resulting in incarceration or probation in lieu of incarceration, or the entry of a guilty, nolo contendere plea, or an Alford plea, or deferred adjudication without expungement; or
- (k) Failure to cooperate with the ABR or its Professionalism Committee at any point during the investigation of a matter arising under Article X.

Section 10.2. Hearings on matters arising under Section 10.1 shall be held before the Hearing Committee pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Policies and Procedures as amended from time to time. There shall be no right to an in-person hearing on any matter arising under Section 10.1(d).

Section 10.3. In the event that a Diplomate's board certification has been revoked for any reason, the ABR may determine whether to allow the former Diplomate to obtain a new certificate and may impose any conditions it deems appropriate on the new certificate. All new certificates are subject to the Bylaws of the Corporation at the time the certificate is issued and will be subject to the same conditions, policies and procedures applicable to a newly awarded certificate at the time the certificate is issued, including time limits and requirements for recertification and Continuing Certification.

Section 10.4. The Corporation shall have the right to publish the final decision and any factual findings that might help to explain the reasons for such decision in any matter arising under Section 10.1. If a Diplomate's certificate is revoked, the Corporation may report the revocation to the American Board of Medical Specialties.

ARTICLE XI
Confidentiality Regarding Assessment Scoring

It is the policy of the ABR to preserve the confidentiality of assessment scoring for individual candidates and diplomates and to not divulge assessment scoring without the candidate or diplomate's consent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the ABR may disclose to the Program Director and Department Chair of each program in which a candidate was enrolled whether or not the candidate successfully passed any assessments conducted by this Corporation. The ABR may also release information concerning a candidate or diplomate's position in the ABR's certifying process and relevant information related to a person's certification status. Further, the ABR may release statistical information related to assessment scoring which is not identified with a specific candidate or diplomate.

ARTICLE XII
Amendments

These Bylaws may be altered and amended at any time by the Board of Governors at any meeting held for that purpose. Notice of such meeting and of such proposed amendment must be given in writing either by mail or personal notice to each member of the Board of Governors at least twenty (20) days prior to the holding of such meeting. An amendment to these Bylaws requires an affirmative vote of at least three-fourths (3/4ths) of the members of the entire Board of Governors.

ARTICLE XIII
Seal

The seal of this Corporation shall bear the words of the following or similar import, that is to say:

The American Board of Radiology
Incorporated in the District of Columbia
1934

ARTICLE XIV
Indemnification of Governors, Trustees, Officers, and Others

The Board of Governors may exercise the full extent of the powers which this Corporation has under the laws of the District of Columbia, as such law exists from time to time, to indemnify Governors, Trustees, officers, examiners, employees, including the Executive Director, Associate Executive Directors, volunteers, and agents for expenses incurred by reason of the fact they are or were Governors, Trustees, officers, examiners, employees, including the Executive Director, Associate Executive Directors, volunteers, or agents of this Corporation. Such expenses shall include attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement, and amounts otherwise reasonably incurred. The Board of Governors may make advances against such expenses upon terms decided by it. The Board of Governors may exercise the full extent of the powers which the Corporation has under the laws of the District of Columbia, as such law exists from time to time, to purchase and maintain insurance against the risks above described, on behalf of its Governors, Trustees, officers, examiners, employees, including the Executive Director, Associate Executive Directors, volunteers, and agents.

Passed unanimously as revised on December 15, 2025.
